Rev. H. G. Crews baptized one candidate at the Fulton Baptist church on Sunday. At the Second Baptist church large audiences assembled, both morning and night. It was the last Sunday but one upon which the popular paster, Dr. Bitting, would preach previous to his departure for Europe. Both of his discourses for the day were impressive and exrnest.

The five choir of the church afforded a rich musical repast morning and evening, especially on the latter occasion, when, assisted by about twenty of their co-workers from other choirs, they sung for an opening The Lord is Great," concluding with his character of Dr. Chiles, and anticipating a piece Vincenzo Rhighini's great chorus, grand allegro movement, "Blessed is the people who know the joyful sound." It is a sitting in the porch with him when the parmatter worthy of remark that not withstanding the high order of classic music used by the porch and said to Dr. Chiles, "I underthis choir in their opening pieces and other stand there is a rumor about town that I voluntaries, the whole congregation unite in said something about you that you didn't singing the hymns to an extent rarely seen like." Father Boyle also delivered a discourse in the morning during High Mass on the descent of the Holy Ghost on the apostles. At St. Patrick's church at 10 A. M. con-

WHAT THE REPUBLICANS OF MADISON WARD INTEND TO DO .-- The Republicans of Madison Ward met last night about 9 o'clock at Hams Hall, O. H. Russell in the chair. The chairman laid before the meeting communication from the Republican City Committee, recommending and urging that independent candidates where they are worthy, true men, and where no Republieans have been nominated. Mr. Andrew Washburn addressed the Club, and said that the only hope of purging

the city government of corrupt men would be to vote for the Independents; that there was no hope of the Republicans electing their own ticket; that no Republican could ever hold office in Richmond unless he be an independent candidate, and be elected as such. After his address he presented a resolution to the effect that the Republicans of Madison Ward should support the independent nominees; which was put to the meet-

The latter gentleman had been spoken to on the subject, but up to a late hour this evening (Monday) he (Mr. Starke) had not decided what he would do. Alleged Attempt to Murder the Mayor of Manchester.

THREE OF THE ACCUSED SENT TO THE GRAND JURY.

Since Saturday night Manchester has been in a state of excitement over an alleged attempt to murder Dr. L. R. Chiles at his residence, between 10 and 11 o'clock on that night. Dr. Chiles is acting Mayor of Manchester, under appointment of Judge Clopton, and is the Conservative candidate for that office. It appears that having been recently endorsed by the Republi-can Convention held in Manchester last week, a rumor became current that he had bribed eight negroes to vote for him, and used public school funds for that purpose.

As soon as he heard the charge on Saturday he inquired and learned from one George Cox that the report originated with David R. Hazletine. Chiles had seen Hazletine and had a friendly conversation with him that day, previous to receiving the statement of Cox. When they separated Hazle-tine came over to Richmond. Chiles determined to see Hazletine again and have a settlement of the matter. Arming himself he looked for him without success. Finally he went to the store of Mr. Harding, Hazletine's brother-in-law; told him about the slander, and said he must see Hazletine before he slept that night. He then went away, leaving the impression upon Harding's mind that a positive denial on the part of Hazletine would be satisfactory to the Doctor. Hazletine returned from Richmond about 9 o'clock, with several men-they say with the intention of going to a political meeting— and Harding called Hazletine aside, told him what Dr. Chiles bad said, and advised him to go at once to his residence and settle the matter amicably, as he was sure Dr. Chiles was disposed to do.

After some hesitation Hazletine went around to the Doctor's with several men, others following them to see what would take place, and all stopped under the shade of a tree across the street from the house. Captain Lipscomb, chief of police of Manchester, had heard the rumors affecting the difficulty, went to his residence, and was ties came opposite. Hazletine ran up into you said I paid to negroes $160 out of the public school funds to vote for me." Hazlechurch, baptized three persons-two femeles tine denied having made the statement, and Dr. Chiles said, "Well, I'm satisfied then, and will give you my author." Hazletine said he didn't want to know who the author was, but Chiles told him it was George Cox. He then said, "I'll tell you what I did say; I said you gave eight To which Chiles replied, he did'nt mind that, because if he had chosen to give anybody his own money he had a right to do it Hazletine said, "Come out in the street with me and see the fellows," or the fellow. Dr. Chiles refused to go, and Hazletine put his hand on his shoulder and denounced him as a coward and a liar, which the Doctor answered with a blow in the face, and the two grappled and struggled until they got to the end of the porch, which is twenty feet long and fifteen from the ground, and Chiles was cars standing on Broad street during the While this was going on, Hazletine called out several times "Come on, boys!" "Come on !" was trying to draw his pistol; but as his as- Ordered to be paid. sailant did not desist, he let go the pistol, and succeeded in escaping the impending the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac danger. By this time several of the men across the street rushed up into the porch, and Officer Fitzgerald arrived. Captain Lipscomb had arrested Hazletine after a scuille with him, and had him in custody at save himself from being thrown over the Laurel street, and a flagging from a point on railing, Dr. Chiles had his ankle badly Monroe Square opposite the chapel across wrenched; and one of those who went into the porch attempted to cut him with a knife, but was prevented by a Mr. Mitchell, who threw up his arm, and received a painful cut in the palm of his hand. This man was thrown headlong down the steps by Mr. S.

M. Perdue, and did not return. The police arrested Michael Freede in the porch, and locked him and Hazletine in the station-house. Yesterday they, with W. J. Woods, Henry Corr, and Owen Murtha, were brought before Justices James A. Gentry, James M. Perdue, and S. T. In appearance he at times very much resembles Forrest, and in action he is so very graceful that we will not endeavor to compare him to any actor we have ever seen on the Richmond stage. He is supported by a fine company, and as this is his farewell appearance in this country we would advise all who have not seen him to take advantage of this evening's opportunity, when he appears as Hamlet. THE CIRCUS.-Our city was much enlivened yesterday in various and sundry ways, but in no way can it be said that so many young hearts were made happy during the Whitsuntide holidays as by the arrival of the Great Southern Circus. The street caravan, with its band, live Indians, and many appurtenances, attracted general attention, and Richmond boys were willing to part with anything save their pet dogs "to get in to see the show." There was quite a run on the firm of Bootblack, Shoeshine & Co., and many aged parents sadly counted

THE REPUBLICANS OF JACKSON WARD RATIFY THEIR PARTY NOMINATIONS AGAIN .-- The Republicans of Jackson Ward met again last night to consider the nominations made by the convention for aldermen and councilmen. The meeting was held in the base- Fair Grounds to-day, or during the week, as D. ment of the Third Street Methodist church, and was presided over by Josiah Crump, James Burwell acting as secretary. A communication from the Radical City Central Committee recommending to the Ward voters to support independent candidates where there are no regular party nominees was presented and received, and where the Independents are honest, faithful men. One of the colored voters present wanted to know who the Independents were? The chairman said he wasn't able to give him all the information he desired. Mr. R. M. Manly said he was glad that the curis, pulls, and crimps in proportion. Combings committee had not recommended the Inde- made into braids at the rate of 50c. an ounce; pure men.

The regular ticket of the ward, including the names of Messrs. James W. Gilman and George H. Bright, was read. A white Republican voter (the only one present except Mr. Manly) moved that the Much talk ensued between Landon Boyd, John Oliver, and others concerning the position of Mr. Gilman and Dr. Bright, and it was finally agreed that in order to secure improvement in the ward it would be necessary to send Conservatives to the Council. A colored voter by the name of Bullock addressed the meeting at some length on the subject of the independent candidates and of being cheated out of the election; that two years ago a certain independent had been elected, and when the vote was counted he had been cheated out of it. He didn't mean to throw his vote away any longer. He believed E. B. Cook to be an honest man, and he meant to support him.

Sundry points of order were raised, Mr. Manly got up and left, and after a good deal
